

Empty Space

1) Cut a shaped hole into a colored piece of paper, (make your own random shape, or use a cookie cutter to trace a shape).

2) Distribute papers with holes to students, then have them create a picture around the empty space. They will find a way to incorporate the empty space into their picture.

This project can easily be incorporated into the holidays (hearts for Valentine's Day, eggs for Easter, etc.)